Gallery to Make You Feel Like a Kid

We think no Orange County home is complete without Bugs. The Chuck Jones Gallery will tickle the child within as you browse through Jones-created images of that wascally wabbit and cohorts Daffy Duck, Elmer Fudd, Pepe LePew, Wile E. Coyote, and the Road Runner, preserved in cel, oil, and rough pencil sketches. 3065 Edinger Ave., Tustin, 949-660-7791, chuckjonesgallery.com.

Fried-Oyster Fix

We still haven't had our fill of fat, succulent, fried-to-a-golden-brown Willapa Bay oysters at Fish Camp (dinner, $11). Seasoned lovingly, and flash-fried with barely a trace of grease, they're the perfect marriage of sweet crunch and briny sea. We like them with the garlicky spinach, and cheesy grits sides, and, for dessert, banana pudding ($4). Did we mention there's no corkage fee? 16600 Pacific Coast Highway, Huntington Beach, 562-592-2267, samsfishcamp.com.

04 Fruity Margaritas

Javier's too crowded? Jump in a limo and jet up to Cha Cha's Tacos & Tequila. The lineup of fruit-flavored margaritas: grapefruit-flavored Cha Cha ($9.50); watermelon ($9), and the regular ($8) go down like water. Order some chipotle honey-glazed grilled salmon, or a trio of enchiladas, and hang out. There's a side dish of cougar eye-candy as a parade of dark-eyed dudes moves from cantina to dining room. 110 W. Birch St., Brea, 714-255-1040, chachasbrea.com.

Up-and-Coming Art Walk

Give Laguna Beach and Santa Ana a rest. Find more than 30 venues at the Fullerton Art Walk. Its hub is the Magoski Art Colony, where three galleries and a small bookstore have joined forces. In this city, everyone gets in on the act, so don't be surprised to find a hair salon displaying some mind-blowing paintings. First Friday of each month from 6 to 10 p.m., fullertonartwalk.com.

Tourist Trap Locals Love

We keep coming back to Fisherman's Restaurant & Bar at San Clemente Municipal Pier like a two-timing lover we can't shake. Why? The ocean view, the sea air, the gorgeous sunsets, and, yes, even the horn of the passing train feed the soul. Add a glass of Trefethen chard ($10), a prawn cocktail ($10), the sourdough bread ($2.50), and the body's happy, too. 611 Avenida Victoria, San Clemente, 949-498-6390, thefishermansrestaurant.com.
